FIVE NEW PLAYS NEXT WEEK.

Things Theatrical Beginning to Move a Little.

De Wolf Hopper and Other Old Favorites to Be Heard Again.

"The White Squadron" will have its first metropolitan production at the Fourteenth Street Theatre Monday night. It is the work of James W. Hawkins, Jr., and deals with the recent Congress of Nations at Rio de Janeiro to protest against the persistent intruder tolerated in Brazil." The principal scenes will show the Grand Plaza of Rio, a pillaged monastery in the interior of South America, and the grand harbor of Rio. In the cast will be Henry Lee, Elmer Grandin, William Harcourt, Oscar Eagle, Robert Hilliard, Antoine Butler, Graham Henderson, Alice Fischer, Aunt Louisa Eddlestone and Nellie Vale.

N. H. Sothern will begin his annual season at the Lyceum Theatre Tuesday night in "Miss Muggins Merrington's" play entitled "Captain Leitchbarber." This comedy had a single matinee performance some months ago at the Lyceum Theatre, and was received with some favor. Many changes have, however, been made in the play since then, and these changes are described as improvements. Mr. Sothern plays the part of an Irish officer in the Royal Fusiliers. His leading lady will be that capital actress, an pleasant-looking young woman, Virginia Hartney.

De Wolf Hopper, recruited by his European tour, will again disport himself in "Wang" at the Broadway Theatre, Monday night. The management believe that the vitality of this very amusing "burlesque" has not been seriously impaired, and the indications are that this managerial belief is correct. When the Intermission in "Wang" comes, "The Lady of the Tiger" will be substituted. Pretty little Della Fox will lead Mr. Hopper's company.

The preliminary season of the Standard Theatre will be opened to-day with a play new to this city, entitled "Lady Lil." The author of the play is Laurence Marston, the husband of the star, Lillian Lewis, who is not completely a stranger to metropolitan audiences. The action of "Lady Lil" takes place in 1866, and the people of the play are Greeks, Americans, Americans, Frenchmen, and Frenchmen. The play will include "Gypsies," "Love and War," "A White Lie."

"Jerry" is the name of the play that will be introduced for the first time to a New York audience at the Lyceum Theatre on Saturday. The star will be J. W. Summers, a character actor, and the leading female role will be entrusted to Grace Emmett, a Southern beauty. Miss Della Fox and Miss Stephen will be heard in the cast. The play will open at the Standard Theatre on Saturday evening, and the curtain will consequently be seen again during the coming week. Their work is interesting, as they are clever, skillful, and witty.

Brothers, trapeliers, and aerielists who were popular at this house last season are again on the stage. Hubert Masson has an open air booth, and is appearing at the Casino.

The attractions at Doris's Eighth Avenue Museum next week will include Eighteen, the St. Louis German Werner, Werner's acrobatic dogs, Prof. Queen's神奇的魔术师, and the famous German contortionist who can bend his body in many ways. The Berlin Elephants, and in theatres No. 2 will be Doris's All-Star Specialty Company. The great "Haberdashery" will be in the cool, salt-laden air which is a very pretty way of putting it. This pyramidal affair is a capital managed affair, and one of extreme artistic value. During the past week it has been very extensively patronized.

"The Mascot" remains at Paine's Theatre, where it has patiently stayed through the intense heat—a test that would try the en-

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

Suggestion to the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U.

Billy Plummer, the Bantam Pugilist, Leaves for Home.

The Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union is getting things under way for the annual outdoor championship games, which will be held at Manhattan Field on Sept. 10. The committee having these games in charge realize the necessity of giving due care in arranging for them.

The last sport of the Association is giving indoor games which were held at Madison Square Garden in January last.

The new bantam adaptation, entitled

"Village Wedding," will be continued next week. Other attractions will be the Boarish and the boxing matches with work this Summer, owing to the lamentable inactivity of athletes, and the Labor Day games ought to serve admirably as preliminary practice for the championships.

It has often been said that the A. A. U. games, whether of the National Association or the Metropolitan Association, are never successful financially, and that these associations are obliged to give boxing shows in order to make money. The Association now has an excuse to redeem itself in this respect, and if the Committee manage the games as they should the Association ought to clear a nice surplus. The games must, at least, pay for themselves or there will be a loss to the spectators.

The senior eighteenth shell race will be the last event in the Middle States regatta to be rowed on the course at Newark to-day. This race will be sailed at 1 p.m. sharp.

John O'Conor, Secretary of the Portland

Athletic Club, says the games to be given by his club on Aug. 20 will be among the best of the season.

Swimming is one of the popular sports now at Travers Island, the pretty民主的 New York Athletic Club.

FROM THE WORLD OF LABOR.

To-morrow the K. of L. Cooper's Assembly of this city will elect new officers.

The Labor Federation of Queensland, Australia, has resolved not to recognize Queen Victoria Day.

Cigar-makers are being imported into Africa to teach the natives how to cultivate and tobacco.

The carpenters' Union of San Francisco, lately finished their eighth house front on the plan of a Sunday "raising." Seven houses have already been built in this way.

The members of the Knights of Labor in New Haven and finished the house in eight hours, complete with no cost to the Society. The labor of cutting the houses are only paid by members of the Union.

Mango, Wiener & Co., of Philadelphia, whose cigar-makers are on strike since April 25, have applied to Judge Wilson, of the Pa. Court of Common Pleas, for an injunction against the manufacturers of twenty-eight other union cigar-makers to prevent them from picking the factory.

The case will come up next week.
